Directions: Make a quick sketch of an illustration from a book you have read or that you would like to read. Then use our visual thinking strategies to answer these questions in your writing:
 What's going on in this picture? What did you see that made you say that? What more can you find?
Be sure to reread your writing so you know that you have done your best work. There are more lines on the back.

Illustration VTS

Name: _____

