Tell Me A Story

Directions: Take a moment to do some silent looking at the illustration Thinking about:

- 1. What's going on in this picture?
- 2. What did you see that made you say that?
- 3. What more can you find?

Then write a story about what could be happening in the illustration. When you're done, take time to reread your work and to make it your best writing. You can add your version of the illustration in the box.
